the papers in this volume are contributed by leading historians art historians and archaeologists and focus on 5 key themes the evolution of settlement patterns in the byzantine empire the impact of barbarian elites in spain gaul italy and pannonia the role of the church in the definition of new links between town and territories the situation in culturally homogenous territories such as constantinople and the minor langbard polities the situation in economically defined territories contributions include papers by gian pietro brogiolo pablo c diaz michel fixot gisela ripoll and javier arce sauro gelichi wolfram brandes and john haldon nancy gauthier gisella cantino wataghin ross balzaretti martina caroli neil christie bryan ward perkins and john mitchell the decline of the roman empire encouraged the spread westwards of tribes from eastern europe settling areas from which native people had been cleared by the spread of the power of rome the studies here focus on the customs of these barbarian peoples the articles here concern the period from the end of the roman empire up to the 10th 11th centuries and the lands between the loire and the rhine most particularly the low countries rural history forms the subject of the first studies which focus on the large classical estates of the carolingian period adriaan verhulst has argued convincingly that these were medieval creations not any inheritance from late antiquity and emphasizes their regional differences the following section on urban history consists of three studies on the origins and early development of the key flemish cities of ghent bruges and antwerp this last now in english and three broader ranging essays which seriously challenge pirenne s long accepted views of town origins in these the author makes full use of contemporary archaeological research to supplement the scanty written sources and to examine the possibilities of discontinuity from roman times through the early middle ages cette série d'articles concerne la période allant de la fin de l'empire romain jusqu'aux 10<sup>e</sup> et 11<sup>e</sup> siècles et les territoires situés entre la Loire et le Rhin avec un attachement plus particulier aux Pays-Bas les premières études qui se concentrent sur les grands domaines classiques de l'époque carolingienne ont pour sujet l'histoire rurale adriaan verhulst a soutenu de façon convaincante qu'il s'agissait d'œuvres de créations médiévales plutôt que d'un héritage provenant de l'antiquité tardive et il en souligne les différences régionales la section suivante qui traite de l'histoire urbaine consiste en trois études sur les origines et le développement des cités flamandes de Gand Bruges et Anvers et en trois essais moins spécifiques qui remettent sérieusement en question les opinions de Pirenne acceptées de longue date sur les origines de la ville au travers de ces dernières l'auteur se sert pleinement de la recherche archéologique eminent italian historian giovanni levi once notably remarked that no one is a marxist anymore pointing to a paradox in italian cultural history while what is called marxism was supposedly hegemonic over italian culture and especially history writing for decades in the postwar period it then seems to have suddenly disappeared this study questions such a vision of a monolithic and hegemonic marxism it starts from the most effective anecdote to all ideologising narratives that is research into the texts themselves it sees the marxist historiography of the post 1945 period as a history in the making in which references to marxian theory were a fundamental factor driving historiographical innovation this allows the book to bring to light a highly original experience in the development of historiography based on the long italian tradition of reflection on historical knowledge the italian annotated bibliography on tunas tuna like and billfish species is a sort of unicum because for the very first time it provides annotation in english for all papers published by italian authors over the centuries in various languages taking into account that these species are an essential component of the italian and mediterranean culture thousands of authors published a very high amount of papers since historical times on various themes and subjects these large fish species are nowadays not only essential elements of the marine trophic chain but also important components of human seafood and the related fishery economy this book makes all these papers internationally available for all scientists helping them in their research activities and the annotations facilitate the searching work by species and keywords
